NOTICE

Judicious and Responsible Use of Chart Papers

It has been observed that the requisition for chart papers for various activities and purposes has increased manifold this year.

All teachers are hereby advised to use chart papers very carefully and judiciously. Unnecessary use or wastage of paper must be strictly avoided. Wherever possible, existing/used chart papers should be reused for activities, displays, practice work, or other suitable purposes.

Going forward:

- Chart papers will be issued only in limited quantities based on the actual requirement.
- Teachers must plan the requirement carefully before submitting a requisition.
- Unused portions of chart papers should be preserved and reused.
- Requisitioning extra papers "just in case" should be avoided.
- Teachers are requested to explore alternatives and make maximum use of available materials.
- Any unnecessary wastage of chart paper will not be accepted.

We expect everyone to contribute towards the responsible use of school resources and develop a culture of conservation among ourselves and our students.

Your cooperation in this regard is highly appreciated.
